

Dr. Lauri Hetemäki

Assistant Director at European Forest Institute (EFI) and Professor of Forest Sector Foresight at the University of Eastern Finland.

Contact: lauri.hetemaki@efi.int

- Ph.D. (Econ.) from University of Helsinki, and MA (Econ.) from University of Sussex, England.
- Before his current position, Hetemäki worked as a Head of Foresight and Policy Support programme at EFI, and as a Senior Researcher and Project Leader at the Finnish Forest Research Institute (Metla).
- Research interests are foresight studies, the global and regional outlook studies for the forest sector, forest products and bioenergy markets.
- Hetemäki has extensive experience in policy support work; e.g. in the European Parliament, and the Finnish Government and Parliament.
- He has published 180 publications, of which 29 peer reviewed scientific articles.

Future of the European Forest-Based Sector - Trends in der Europäischen Forstwirtschaft